

Willunga News... IN-A-NUT-SHELL

December 2008

in conjunction with Willunga's websites www.WillungaFestivals.com & www.WillungaSA.com

Exciting new Willunga Directories...

At last, after four years of background work and a year of preparation, a fantastic new service to the Willunga community and its businesses has arrived.

New town website...

Willunga's new, town website www.WillungaSA.com is now online. There is still more work to be done, but you can now experience the ease of contacting businesses, organisations and clubs on one location on your computer screen.

2009 Directories Calendar...

If you don't use a computer or want something nearer at hand, by next week you should have received your FREE 2009 Willunga Directories Calendar in your letter box or post box. This beautiful and very convenient calendar has an extra 14 pages of information about Willunga businesses, organisations and clubs plus emergency numbers as well as public and school holidays and the major Willunga events...

Printed Directory for shops...

In January, the same Directory information in A4 format will be available to all Willunga Businesses. This directory will provide businesses with a convenient "one stop" information spot that will save them time, both in their own enquiries and when answering the questions of visitors.

Requests fulfilled...

Willunga Directories have been greatly needed for a long time. As a result of many requests over the years Andrew & Rilda Offe have been operating the www.WillungaFestivals.com, these services are at last available in a clear, convenient and easy to use format.

The process has been helped by a small Onkaparinga Council grant. With the expectation of some further assistance to cover the ongoing expense of operating the Directories as well as the InaNutshell, (which currently has been leaving the Offes well out of pocket), the annual cost of entries in the three Directories has been kept down to a small $50 per year plus GST.

Book your entry today...

If you wish to be included in the Directories, contact us... you can still be included in the Printed Directory and on the website.

AND if you are on the net, have a good look at WillungaSA.com. You'll be amazed at the information you will use daily... far too much to mention here.

See page 10 & 11 for more.

Marie at the Christmas Tree Festival

May Your Fridge Be Full Of Coldies

May your sheep have full bellies and pastures to graze may you get on well with the oldies may the mossies be few and the flies far between may your fridge be full of coldies

I wish you good cheer at Christmas and New Year and holidays when you need 'em
I wish you children comin' out of your ears and something in the cupboard to feed 'em and if you must roam far away from your home
I hope then the sun shines on you and I pray as you go that the people you meet shower many good things upon you

May your chooks be contented and wear a big smile may your days be free of foreboding may your wages be many and your pay packets full with seventeen and a half per cent loading may your fields be fertile and flowing with wheat especially if you're a wheat farmer may you be a good fella to the people you meet and in winter may you have warm pyjamas

From the Editor...

POSITIVE FEEDBACK...

"Dear Editors, Many thanks for all your wonderful assistance throughout the year in publishing news of events in the InaNutshell and on the Willunga websites.

I got lots of feedback over the Christmas Tree Festival weekend about different media that people heard about the festival, including newspapers, radio, email, internet, word of mouth, fliers and posters. Some people read about an event and then choose to look it up on the internet." Jenny Esots, Uniting Church Publicity Officer.

THANKYOU FOR YOUR HELP IN 2008...

Your adverts... The money paid by businesses to advertise, goes towards the printing costs of your monthly Willunga news... InaNutshell. Wonderful support!

Volunteers... A special thankyou to Brian Visser for setting-up monthly events, news and reports for the InaNutshell and to Margaret Offe for proof reading.

Lois Koppen for a wonderful job of typing articles.

Thanks to Kazz Benson, Kiaya & Zac; Lisa & Mike Adams; and Margaret, Andrew & Paul Offe for helping with deliveries in 2008.

Andrew Offe for monthly trips to & from the printers in Lonsdale.

Paul & Michael for computer hardware & software maintenance.

Your articles... A big thankyou to all those who regularly send in their articles and photos... and even better those who send theirs in by 20th of each month (except 10th Dec for Jan issue)

Your donations... We have received generous donations of paper and money from community groups and individual residents. Thankyou each one.

Collection Points... Thankyou to businesses who have given up counter or rack space for a heap of InaNutshells each month.

InaNutshell Box... Thankyou to the caretakers of the InaNutshell box. We understand the time this takes.

Your suggestions... These are always appreciated, seriously considered and almost always implemented in some way.

COLLECT YOUR AD RECEIPTS... from the InaNutshell Box NOW so you can claim your ads on your tax, and so we can empty the box! If you are missing a receipt, please let us know.

SHOWCASE YOUR GROUP... Book in for 2009 today! Call 08 8556 2554. If there is no answer, please leave a message.

Wishing you all a blessed & safe Christmas and New Year. Rilda Offe.

Have a Laugh...

1. He drove his expensive car into a tree and found out how the Mercedes bends!
2. Did you hear about the guy whose whole left side was cut off?
He's all right now.
3. The early bird may get the worm, but the second mouse gets the cheese..

News & Reports

Willunga TheatreSports™ In Full "Flight"

Willunga is currently hosting the first ever season of TheatreSports™ in South Australia to be conducted outside the CBD. Yes, in the past, there have been a number of very successful one off shows, but this is the first complete series and co-ordinator Jeff Simmons says the local players are really fired up and audience response has been great.

TheatreSports™, the hilarious inspiration for "Who's Line is it Anyway" and "Thank God You're Here" is improvised comedy where teams make up and act out stories based on audience suggestions. Teams improvise scenes following wacky game structures and do whatever it takes to entertain the audience while avoiding being thrown off stage by the Hanging Judge.

Each night at the Willunga Show Hall consists of three different performances from which you can pick and choose. Year 5-7 children from the Willunga Waldorf and Tatchilla Schools perform from 6.20 – 6.50pm. There is a low key Rookie competition from 7.05 – 7.50pm between the State Junior Squad and beginner adult teams which include locals Kylie Kain, Jim Connery, Patrick Marquis, Alexander Henry and Annie Owen. Finally, the Impro NOW! Troup of Ewan Rourke, Tresh Pearce, Andrew Heggart, Anne and Peta Simmons, Tony Walsh, Sam Calleja and Guy Mansbridge perform, with some guest improvisers from the city from 8.10 – 10pm.

There is also a special Dinner and Show package where you can celebrate Christmas at one of three Willunga restaurants: The Green Room on High St, The Alma Hotel or Willunga Health Organics, then walk down High St to see the Impro NOW! Troup perform at a specially reduced rate.

This is your last chance this year to catch TheatreSports anywhere in Adelaide so make sure you get down to the Willunga Show Hall on Dec 6 or 13.

Juniors: 6.20 – 6.50pm $3.00 (display only)

Rookies: 7.05 – 7.50pm $5.00 (includes entry to Juniors)

Impro NOW! Troup: 8.10 – 10.00pm (includes entry to Juniors and Rookies)

Willunga Quarry Market Inc....

There is no need to head to Adelaide's CBD for unique Christmas gift ideas. There will be unique gifts, and plenty of them, for sale at the Willunga Quarry Market on Saturday, 13th December from 9am to 1pm.

With only 11 shopping days left to purchase those thoughtful gifts for family and friends, why not shop at Willunga's friendly, outdoor, country market? Market shopping has many advantages. For instance, there will be no parking fees or long distances to walk, the mood is harmonious and you will find that many products are hand-made with passion by the stallholder. Hand-made gift suggestions: silver jewellery, colourful glass pendants and platters, turned wooden pepper grinders, blue glazed pottery mugs, leather belts, embroidered woollen baby blankets, dolls clothes, fragrant soy and palm wax candles and corrugated iron garden ornaments. There will be a good selection of fresh and home-made produce including party snacks, Christmas cakes, puddings and mince pies.

If far away places beckon, then seek out the three stallholders selling hand-made products from Nepal, India and Vietnam, try some of Zoë's sweet and savoury Greek specialities and John's Chinese vegetarian curry puffs and spring rolls.

Something new, a local maker of corrugated iron: raised garden beds. There will be plenty of plants on sale and well-com-posted pig manure to fertilize and retain soil moisture.

Visit the Market's Information Tent for local traders' business cards and tourist information.

The Willunga Quarry Market is located on Aldinga Road, Willunga. There are three entrances: Main and Aldinga Roads and Railway Terrace. Get into it! Enquires: Pamela Jensen 08 8556 2502 or www.willungaquarrymarket.com

Michael Shannon of Willunga was the survey competition winner. Courtesy of Adelaide Biplanes Michael will enjoy a scenic flight in a WACO biplane.

JamaeRaw School of the Arts – Raw news update...

BLUE DOORS STUDIO BACK IN ACTION! After a long awaited transformation, The Blue Doors has finally received approval to be converted into a community arts centre from January 2009. Plenty of studio time available for hire, and bookings are to be made through...

District Services For Willunga

McLaren Region Community Carols 2008...

The ever popular McLaren Region Community Carols will this year once again be hosted by The Tatchilla Lutheran College, Tatchilla Rd, McLaren Vale on the evening of Sunday 7th December 2008 commencing at 7.30pm.

This event is organized by a community group supported by the City of Onkaparinga Council and local businesses. Choirs and the orchestra are made up of residents and local school children who all perform for the enjoyment of the local community. The event will be officially opened by the Mayor of the City of Onkaparinga, Lorraine Rosenberg and the evening will be compered by local resident Julie Howard from ABC Classic FM.

Whilst there is no entrance fee for those attending, they will be asked to make a gold coin donation to assist with meeting the costs incurred in putting the show on. Food and drink stalls will be available but visitors are encouraged to bring along a picnic to help maintain the wonderful family atmosphere.

For many years a community carols event has existed within the McLaren Vale district and next year, 2009, will see the "coming of age" of the event with its 21st performance.

During the course of planning for the 2008 performance, the event committee produced a constitution that now forms the basis for the implementation of the McLaren Region Community Carols Association Incorporated. Formal incorporation was accomplished on 23rd October 2008 and a public meeting will be convened early in 2009 to adopt this constitution and to fill the relevant committee positions as well as to commence planning for the birthday event in 2009.

In addition to taking steps to form an Incorporated Association to administer and manage future Community Carols, the planning committee has designed a staging and sound package that can be installed and erected at almost any venue. This provides an obvious sustainable future for the event and further enhances the reputation of the concert by allowing it to be hosted anywhere within the region. Businesses and other supporters are welcome to "get on board" at this early stage along with members of the public who might be interested in being involved with the committee and planning work

Bryan Hearn, Planning Committee Chairman.

McLaren Vale & Districts War Memorial Hospital Volunteers...

A Volunteers View...

Did you enjoy the garage sale and get some bargains and enjoy the glorious day and fun atmosphere?

Did you miss out on this great event?

As a volunteer only on the Friday and Saturday it was great fun to be a part of the team and what a team they are.

Congratulations to that very hard working bunch of lovely people led by Madge. From one sale to the next they are there to receive goods, sort, price and pack them away for the next sale and for the Shop, open Monday and Thursday, 10am-1pm.

Hope you will be there for the next one, have morning tea or enjoy the sausage sizzle and support the team who through this provide much needed equipment for our Hospital. Volunteers are always welcomed and it was nice to see some younger helpers.

Garage Sale Results on November 15th 2008:

W/Elephant	$4,398.80
Plants	$ 629.10
Books	$1,394.75
Clothing	$1,232.40
S/Sizzle	$ 777.85
Cake Stall	$ 208.65
Manchester	$ 551.15
Raffle	$ 208.40
Total	$9,401.00

Prior to the Garage Sale: Sales were very good Mondays and Thursdays tallying to $10,700.50.

A great job was done by everyone. Thanks have to go to the community for their donations, some good and some not so good. We can only sell good, clean working and unbroken goods. In future we will only be able to take goods that are saleable, no beds or mattresses.

Once again a big thank you to anyone who donated goods or helped in any way.

Volunteers Coordinator: Madge Justin 08 8323 6600.

Tour Down Under Update...

A big thank you to the local businesses that are getting behind the event and supporting our Willunga celebrations. So far the ANZ Bank, Willunga Vet, The Green Room, Minko Wines, GTI Shop, Marks Outdoor Blinds, Three Monkeys Fine Foods, The Alma and Clippers Hair Design have all confirmed their support. As a supporter your funds will contribute toward the decoration of the town, family entertainment, giveaways for visitors and an informative map of the town acknowledging all supporters. Three levels of support available – $50, $100 or $200. If you are a local business owner and would like to be involved please contact Jenni on 0411 049 570. A pre-event get together for all business supporters will be held on Friday, 9th January 2009!

Primary School helpers...

Willunga Primary School...

Students at Willunga Primary School are getting into the TDU spirit and are busy creating some fantastic decorations for the town. A big thanks to all the students and teachers involved. (See photo.)

Willunga High School...

In 2009 WHS is offering a great opportunity for locals and visitors to the town to enjoy the TDU in comfort! A convenient package of reserved seating, lunch and live entertainment in a prime location, just 600 m from the finish line. The riders will pass the lunch area five times and reserved seats will be available for the entire period so you can come and go as you please.

Pre booking by December 20 is essential.

All monies raised goes toward supporting WHS students to attend the National Volleyball Championships.

Camp Quality...

An invitation has been extended to Camp Quality for an area to be set aside for their families to enjoy the race and TDU atmosphere as guests of the Willunga Community. Together the TDU Committee and Willunga High School are assisting Camp Quality by way of providing car-parking, tables and chairs for families, use of a BBQ, face-painting and more in the grounds of the Willunga High School.

Volunteers Required...

If you and your family would like to get involved with the Tour Down Under please contact Jenni. Volunteers specifically required for preparation of balloons 21 – 23 January. Please call Pam and offer your services. Volunteers are needed for decoration of the town 23 – 24 January. We will also require volunteers to assist throughout the day and with some to pack up at the end of the event. The more the merrier - young and old we will have a job perfectly suited to you!!

Coordinator: Jenni Mitton 0411 049 570 or email jmitton8@bigpond.com

Balloon Preparation: Pam Jensen 08 8556 2502.

TDU International Festival...

The City of Onkaparinga is developing an International Festival in association with the Tour Down Under, Stage 5 at Willunga on the 24th January 2009.

The aim of the festival is to acknowledge and celebrate the countries which support a Cycling Team in the Tour Down Under. The opportunity exists for representatives of those countries to showcase their culture and traditions through song, music, food, wine, and any other elements that contribute to that countries culture. The countries participating are Belgium, Denmark, France, Italy, Germany, Holland Spain, Switzerland and Australia,

The Council is seeking support through inviting clubs and associations to see what cultural performances, entertainment through costumes and dance, bands and singers that reflect their respective countries and other aspects that showcase their traditions.

The Council is also looking at inviting companies and business that would like to showcase their products and wares again reflecting that particular feature that represents their country. The main focus will be through Food and Wine. It is a great opportunity to support the riders in the Tour Down Under while they are away from home with traditional fanfare and national pride during this stage of the Tour Down Under. (See booking sheet previous page.)

By identifying groups and business that would be interested in being involved in any capacity in promoting that countries culture, traditions and national pride will contribute to a very successful event that supports Tour Down Under.

If you would like to participate and can contribute with a cultural theme please contact me on 8384 0643 at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely

Christmas Tree Festival Grows Bigger and Better Each Year...

Celebration of Christ's Birth...

Willunga Uniting Church presented a big festival of food, music and magical displays for its 6th annual Christmas Tree Festival over the weekend of November 29th and 30th. This has been a huge effort for the organizers, led by the inspiring creative force of Annette Boulden. With great attendances over the whole weekend the highlight was a Carols Evening on a lovely crisp and clear evening under the imposing gum trees of the bell paddock. We were entertained by the Campbelltown Brass Band and the sassy Sisters of Abundance choir. Sunday saw a large group join in a living nativity worship service which was broadcast to the festival.

Devonshire Teas...

Many visitors enjoyed Devonshire tea. The church made use of a garden area with tents put up for the festival. The church was completely transformed with all seating removed and the huge display of trees put in place. Each tree displayed had a story behind it. With many groups getting their members to brainstorm ideas and collectively decorate a tree.

Amazing Variety of Trees...

The Suzuki strings of Wendy Dyson had created a tree from old violin bows and bright colourful materials, including each child's individual picture. The soccer club had soccer socks and a soccer angel. Trees for life had their theme of 'Grow' with different sized trees. There were trees made of fishing rods, slate, eucalyptus and artificial black creations to name but a few. The Willunga preschool included a massive painted cloth tree with submissions from all its 68 children, including a big banner which was strung across the church. The smell from the gingerbread forest was in the air as carols played and people wandered among the native trees and embroidered and quilted trees. Children were fascinated by the display of knitted little cakes and donuts which was part of the afternoon tea tree of the Country Women's Association. Favourites included the Willunga Uniting Church Youth Group house of cards tree, the painted cloth tree and banner and CWA tea and cakes tree.

All agreed every tree was special and provided a fascinating display which has got many people already thinking ahead for next year. Plans for next year will include our much improved facilities. Stay tuned!

Thankyou Helpers & Artists...

Thanks go to the band of volunteers who assisted to decorate, cook and assist during the festival. Special thanks to the Campbelltown Band who come a long way each year, the Sisters of Abundance who brighten our carol's evening with their happy numbers. Also to our minister David Wallace who narrated the carols and living nativity worship. We have been very blessed to have so many willing volunteers, especially with limited facilities as our new community hall is being renovated.

Our Christmas celebrations continue...

with a Christingle service held on Sunday, 21st of December at 8pm. This is a candlelit service featuring a special candle to make and take home. There is also a midnight service on Christmas Eve starting at 11.30pm which also features candle light and carols. Stay around for our Christmas Day celebration at 9am this year. We also continue our collection of festive food for the community outreach service in Aldinga.

Reflect...

May you find time to reflect on the meaning of Christmas to you amongst the glitter and glamour of shopping, party celebrations and family gatherings.

"For unto you is born this day in the City of David, a Saviour which is Christ the Lord."

Book of Luke, Chapter 2, Verse 11.

Over 500 votes to count...

Lots of deliberation... Many commented that they would have liked to have chosen more than one. There was also a wide spread of votes to all the trees on display.

Showcasing Willunga Quilters...

Willunga Quilters are a small group of women who meet twice monthly to share their love of patchwork and quilting. The group formed in 1987 with original members of Natalie Spilsbury, Joyce Jonker, Brenda Pentland, Adele Probert and Margaret Lawrence, who all used to meet in each others homes.

These days, the quilters meet the first and third Saturday of every month in the Willunga Uniting Church Hall.

While the church has been undergoing renovations, the ladies have been meeting at the Primary School staff room, so are unable to take on any new members until their return to the Church Hall, where there is more space. It is hoped that should be early next year.

Currently, Willunga Quilters has twenty members and is a non-profit organisation which regularly raises funds for the local and wider community. In the past they have made quilts for indigenous children, still born babies, palliative care, cancer wards, homeless children and families in sheltered care, to name but a few. There is nothing more comforting than being able to snuggle up under your own warm quilt which has been lovingly stitched and generously donated. The proceeds from their exhibitions and quilt raffles always go to a local charity such as CFS or Friends of the Library and often those proceeds well exceed $1000.

Willunga Quilters hold an exhibition approximately every two years and hope to have their next one at the end of 2009 or early 2010. Countless hours of stitching go into every quilt made, so it takes considerable time to prepare for their show. The last exhibition was held at Waverley Homestead in April 2007 and displayed about fifty quilts. The ladies put on morning and afternoon tea for their visitors as well.

They have finally come of age...

This year the quilters celebrated their 21st birthday with High Tea at the Cup Cake Boutique, Aldinga. They all wore hats to add to the occasion.

Their talents are many and diverse, ranging from hand and machine patchwork and quilting to embroidery and appliqué and even cooking. They share their own homemade afternoon teas at each meeting.

Willunga Quilters endeavour to better their knowledge of their craft by holding workshops, bringing in guest teachers and attending other shows and field trips. The quilters have ventured as far afield as Barossa Valley, Murray Bridge, Strathalbyn, Mannum and even Bordertown, which was an overnight trip.

They have a lot of fun, are very supportive of each other and have developed deep friendships over their years together.

Although membership numbers are limited due to the space their equipment takes up, there are currently some vacancies. They would welcome young, enthusiastic and talented quilters who can share their knowledge of the craft. New members must have basic patchwork and quilting skills to join the group. If you are interested, please contact...

Secretary: Brenda Pentland 08 8556 2198 / 0423 510 424 or...

Co-ordinator: Sharon Hancock 08 8556 2732 / 0414 854 041 / shazhan@bigpond.net.au.

More than a craft...

Co-ordinator Sharon Hancock says that patchwork and quilting is more an art than a craft. "You have to be able to successfully combine the elements of colour, proportion, pattern and design with meticulous workmanship to produce a quilt of true beauty, just like you do in a painting. It can be necessary to reassess your design as the quilt progresses, as in any art work. The design process and the colour choices made can transform an average piece of work into something spectacular.

Inspiration can be gained from a huge variety of quilt magazines or books. New techniques are constantly being introduced and the ever changing variety of fabrics on the market will tempt any fabric lover.

Quilt-making styles range from formally sculptured and classically designed country to neatly constructed traditional and wildly devised contemporary to fascinatingly created folk-art and totally unplanned patchwork".

Willunga Directories... Thankyou...

Our special thanks to the many businesses who have encouraged us in the long and arduous task of setting up the Willunga Directories.

A number have been very generous financially, others have helped us locate other businesses in their field. Others have taken time to look through our preliminary efforts and make valuable suggestions that have improved the directories greatly.

Special thanks also to Michael Offe who came to the rescue at the last moment (& worked late into many nights) to create WillungaSA.com when we were unable to source a web designer who used a software programme which untrained volunteers (now & in the future) could use. Thankyou to Margaret Offe for her provision of meals and kitchen work while Andrew and I were/are at the computers or on the phone.

Willunga photographers Brian Kowald and Matthew Dowling offered photos for the Calendar free of charge and we have been able to partly show our thanks by providing them with free listings. WHS artists, Thomas Hall & Jake Jones drew the delightful thumbnails for the Willunga Directories Calendar. Thankyou to all.

Willunga Recreation Park acts as our auspicing body for grants. Many others have helped through offering encouragement and support.

Our aim with the two town websites, two directories and InaNutshell is to set them up, so they can be efficiently and easily operated as one entity by volunteers and at this stage that is well on the way to happening.

We are currently looking for some major sponsors as well as donations and general help while we are getting everything established.

These Directories are a great asset to Willunga.
